The Collect for the Third Sunday of Lent

God of compassion, whose Son Jesus Christ, the child of Mary, shared the life of a home in Nazareth, and on the cross drew the whole human family to himself: strengthen us in our daily living that in joy and in sorrow we may know the power of your presence to bind together and to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Bishop Jo offers a sermon for Mothering Sunday on 'Honey Badger Mums'. It is (mainly!) based on 1 Samuel 1:20-28 and Luke 2:33-35 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nofRlOrvdBY&feature=youtu.be> Read the transcript

STOP PRESS! - Daily Hope free phone line – 0800 804 8044

In addition to the Hymns, reflections and prayers, more options are being added to help in this time of great need.

The line also offers 'Chair Exercises on the Phone' which are vital, but gentle exercises, to help with circulation and fitness for this most isolated section of our community.

New for February, 'Sleep well with the Daily Hope'. So many people of all ages, but especially the elderly, are struggling to sleep at this worrying and unsettling time - sleep researchers are now calling this 'Covid-somnia!' To help with this, Daily Hope has launched a series of gentle and relaxing reflections written by our own Pippa Crama, using wonderful Bible verses for callers to listen to on the phone whilst they're in bed.

PLEASE DO SHARE this line far and wide with those you know WHO ARE NOT ON THE INTERNET – click here for poster/info share the news

STAMPS FOR RNIB – Wendy Coxell has a box in her porch for collection of used stamps for the RNIB – 79 Greenfield Road – please leave a border around the stamps - thank you so much in advance....

Story Buddies Online. This is a not-for-profit organisation designed to bring together primary school children with those living in isolation, predominantly the elderly, through the joy of reading. The scheme operates through online technology so that children read remotely to "Story Buddies" from their own homes. The Story Buddies are trained to listen to children read, in current safeguarding protocols and the use of online technology. The aim is maintain and hopefully improve the children's reading skills through yet another lock down period and to help improve the mental health and wellbeing of those volunteering as Story Buddies - what's not to like! Further information can be found in the website www.storybuddies.online.

A jigsaw for the winter days? We still have a number of jigsaws left over from last year's Festival. They are located in the Vicarage garage – please use them like a 'Jigsaw library' ☺ Small donations welcome only if you would like to...

A NEW PRAYER SPACE – Zoom Prayer Space

Naomi will be hosting 30-minute prayer sessions via Zoom on an ad-hoc basis. Come along to bask in God's loving presence and be refreshed. Sit quietly in peace or pray out loud as you feel inspired to. If you'd like to be notified when Zoom prayer is taking place, please email Naomi at nrtynie@gmail.com to join the mailing list.

REMINDER – A short version of Daily Prayer is available on the Church of England Website and as an App. <https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/join-us-service-daily-prayer>

Bible Readings for 14th March, 2021 – Mothering Sunday

First Reading – Exodus 2:1-10

1A man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. 2The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months. 3When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. 4His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him. 5The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. 6When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him, 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said. 7Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?' 8Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother. 9Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.' So the woman took the child and nursed it. 10When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because,' she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

Gospel reading: John 19:25-27

25 Standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, 'Woman, here is your son.' 27 Then he said to the disciple, 'Here is your mother.' And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.
