God, the giver of life, whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church: by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will, that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GOOD NEWS ☺ – The PCC are delighted to announce that sometime after Christmas, Rev Rachel Sturt will be returning to St Peter's Church to offer her wonderful and valued ministry. Timings and what shape that might take will be worked through but for now, I am sure you would join me in giving thanks to God for such a blessing! Along with Rachel, of course, we will also be welcoming husband Tim who will be offering us some music ministry – again, just what shape that will take is yet to be thought through but either way, we are delighted to know that Rachel and Tim will be with us as part of our church family. In the meantime, we pray for them as they prepare to leave their current parish and commitments. We pray too for their family, and we look forward to seeing both in the near future. Blessings, Jacqueline

UPDATE RE EASING OF RESTRICTIONS:

For the service:

- NEW GUIDANCE – safety precautions are now recommendations rather than requirements - Generally, let us continue to be mindful of each other and respectful of people's preference in terms of social distancing etc – and help each ourselves and each other to stay safe
 - We continue to recommend the wearing of masks, but this will no longer be a requirementTo enable a continued social distancing precaution:
 - The north aisle continues to provide a socially distanced seating area
 - Cards are available for you to pick up and place next to you when seated – to indicate to other people to leave the seats next to you free.
 - Sitting at the back will offer greater ventilation
- We remind everyone that we are ALL to sanitise our hands when we come in to church – and also when using the toilets as this increases a level of safety as the cleaning regime eases a little.

Refreshments:

- It is recommended that people wear masks while queuing at the counter but can be removed at the tables / outside etc..
- SWEEPING AROUND THE CHURCH – Bob's old broom kit is by the organ if anyone wants to do a bit of tidying up around the church now and then – much appreciated!

HELPING TO KEEP THE ST PETER'S SHOW ON THE ROAD! (see notices above and this!)

PLEASE COULD YOU KINDLY PRAY AND PONDER WHO MIGHT BE OUR NEXT TREASURER & SECRETARY – we need these positions to be filled as Pat and Naomi will not be extending their service commitment – they need a rest and we need to help them do that gracefully and gratefully! ☺ Thank you so much

TREASURER – Pat Lapworth will be standing down in 2022 after an amazing ten years of being the St Peter's Treasurer and Pat has the accounts running like clockwork. If this is something you might be able to commit to, or if you know of anyone, please be in contact with Pat or myself to talk more.

PCC SECRETARY - Naomi Parkin-Tyrie will also be standing down in 2022 as PCC Secretary after three years of faithful and very efficient service. If this might be something you can help with, then please be in contact with Naomi – or myself to find out more.

Thank you

- To those who helped with services today – very much appreciated and valued
- Thank you to Kathryn for a lovely Sunday Space prayer-time last Sunday evening

BRIAN BAILEY – I would like to thank everyone who contributed to Brian's leaving card and collection. I took round the card, plant, wine and a National Garden Centre gift voucher and had a lovely chat to Brian and thanked him from our heart for all the wonderful music he brought to our church life and worship, and how much we would miss him. Brian has retired from being a music director and organist after many rich years of service, but hopefully we might see him in local choirs singing and continuing to be nourished by our rich choral tradition. We also thank Yvette for all her dedication as part of our choir – as we duly thank all of our choir people accordingly – and there will be more about that later...

In the meantime, here is Brian's note of reply to us all which I duly read with a smile on my face ☺ :

To: The folk of St Peter's

From: Brian Bailey

The vicar came calling last week – with gifts, the best of which was a large card that many of you signed. I was most touched by your comments (having checked for the absence of 'At last' and 'Good riddance!'). I, and the choir, put a lot of effort into preparing each service so it is gratifying to find that it paid off and was appreciated.

I'm sorry to be retiring now but the past 18 months have seen the years catch up on me and the increasing number of niggling complaints tell me that the time has come for someone younger to take over. Do give my successors your support even if they don't do things the same as in the old days.

I hope we'll bump into each other as we become more mobile again. In the meantime, best wishes,
Brian

Bible Readings – Trinity 20

First Reading: Amos 5.6-7, 10-15 - ⁶Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire,
and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.
⁷Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground!
¹⁰They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.
¹¹Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them;
you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.
¹²For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins –
you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe,
and push aside the needy in the gate.
¹³Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;
for it is an evil time.
¹⁴Seek good and not evil,
that you may live;
and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you,
just as you have said.
¹⁵Hate evil and love good,
and establish justice in the gate;
it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts,
will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Psalm Psalm 90.12-17

Second Reading; Hebrews 4.12-16

¹²The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

¹⁴Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Gospel; Mark 10.17-31

¹⁷As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' ¹⁸Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. ¹⁹You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother."' ²⁰He said to Jesus, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' ²¹Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' ²²When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

²³Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' ²⁴And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' ²⁶They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' ²⁷Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

²⁸Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' ²⁹Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, ³⁰who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age – houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields – but with persecutions – and in the age to come eternal life. ³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'
