Thank you to everyone involved in leading our worship today - and to those offering hospitality and flowers this week 😊

Thank you to visiting clergy, Rev Clive Richardson who will be presiding at the 8am Holy Communion

From Rev Jacqueline - Following my announcement about my retirement plans – with my last service being the 10am Parish Communion on Sunday 10th August – I just want to say a heartfelt thank you to everyone for your warm and prayerful messages of thanks and warm wishes for the new adventure to come. I'm always here to meet for a chat if you would like to mull things over – or simply to give thanks. Tel: 01252 716431 / 07806 775974 – jackieds8@hotmail.com

PRAYING TOGETHER TODAY: 'A future and a hope' – prayer for our church and community. Today, after the 10am service you are invited to join a few of us in the side chapel where we will be praying for a short while with particular emphasis on God's plans for the future of St Peter's. For the time being, we will continue to gather for prayer twice a month, on July 20th, August 3rd and August 17th, starting immediately after the service or 20 minutes afterwards when coffee is being served. If you have any questions please speak to Kathryn or Carol.

*Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and be not wise in your own sight.
In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (Prov 3:5-6)*

THANK YOU FROM REV SANDY – “I wanted to say thank you for the really beautiful bouquet and the super card that I received on Sunday in celebration of my 25th anniversary in ministry. It has been 16 years of joy being in a church full of love and blessings 😊, with love Sandy.” Thank you to Chris Gray for the beautiful arrangement

THANK YOU - PARISH TEA PARTY – A huge thank you to everyone who helped to make our Parish Tea Party such a lovely occasion – Jonathan & Gerald for your efforts transporting and putting up tables in such hot weather – and to Shirley who helped Jonathan afterwards – my neighbour Holly Pressley for once again being such a lovely host and helper – WCG secretary, Tina Morant for helping clear up and serving during the afternoon – and to the cake bakers: Chris, June, Margaret & Sam – and to everyone who came along – 28 expected, 42 around the tables! (there will be photos next week...) 😊

Bible Readings for the Third Sunday after Trinity

Reading - Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her – that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom. For thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies

Second Reading Galatians 6:7-16

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised – only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

Gospel reading: Luke 10.1-11,16-20

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near."

Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'
